KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The value of the product and its distributions may rise or fall. These risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment (including initial principal investment). You should note that the NAV of the Fund has potential for high volatility due to its investment policies or portfolio management techniques. Market and Credit Risks	Refer to paragraph 5 of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on risks of the product.
 You are exposed to the risk of investing in emerging and less developed markets. The legal, judicial and regulatory infrastructure of such markets is still developing and there is much legal uncertainty. You are exposed to political, regulatory and economic risks. Economic and/or political instability could lead to legal, fiscal and regulatory changes. Taxes or exchange controls can be imposed suddenly. Assets could be compulsorily re-acquired without adequate compensation. Inflation and deflation may result in a decline in the value of the Fund's portfolio. Tax law and practice in certain countries is not clearly established. Additional taxation that is not anticipated when investments are made, valued or disposed of may be imposed. You are exposed to market custody and settlement risks. Securities markets in some countries lack the liquidity, efficiency and regulatory controls of more developed markets. Provisions for custody and legal/beneficial interests and settlement procedures may be less developed than more mature markets. Depositary Bank and subcustodians may default. The Fund may be affected by inability to repatriate income, capital or sale proceeds. You are exposed to credit risks. The issuer of securities and counterparties to transactions may default on their obligations. Credit ratings of an investment are largely based on historical information and may not reflect current financial, volatility or liquidity conditions. Lower rated, higher yielding debt securities. You are exposed to interest rate risks. The Fund's investments may be denominated in different currencies and affected by exchange rate fluctuations. The Fund and certain Share Classes are not denominated in the Singapore Dollar and investors may be exposed to exchange rate risks. The lowes and other debt instruments usually rise and fall in response to changes in interest rates. You are exposed to currency control risks. Certain Asian currencies are not freely convertible and are su
